By

(Bonnie Morawa)

Sara a widow of 34 yrs of age just lost her husband of 4 yrs. she a 34 yr.old housewife and caregiver

5' 3" 180lbs blue eyes curvy figured. was married to a somewhat abusive unappreciated husband who constantly looked at other woman making Sara feel unloved and ugly which wasn't always the case Sara was a slender 140 lbs and confident with herself and her image. Until she had to have a hysterectomy due to cervical cancer she gained weight and lost the looks she once got from husband gene.

This made her feel less of a woman. Until one day after his passing she went on the internet wanting to try new things and came across this dating website for older woman to find a younger man she looked for weeks no good responses only looking for nsa sex and Sara wanted much more and she found a nice young man dean who was a ex football player 6' 3" very muscular and beautiful too look at he had warm brown eyes that mad her heart melt but who was Sara kidding how could someone so incredibly gorgeous want a average overweight woman. so she proceeded to give dean what she thought he like and came on way too strong with explicit sexual suggestion which turned dean completely off days go by and Sara offers her apologies too dean after he saying to her " there's more to me then just sex" so after that they began a friendship

They would each begin confiding in one another about their lives and dean was comforting towards her and her towards him as he had personal issues as well just being released from a semi- pro football team due to the league closing down and also not being able to find many jobs.

Sara offered him a place to come stay with her in Michigan and hopefully make that fresh start they both needed.

But something happened neither expected. This is there story.

Sara Morgan a 35 year old woman who had always lived her life for other people and always caring what everyone thought she was stuck in a abusive relationship with a older boyfriend gene he was 52 . Sara a kind loving woman 5' 3" brown hair and blue eyes like the sky And a curvier figured body who was just a little on the heavy side but trying to get into shape and looking for a way out of her old life

One March afternoon while boyfriend gene was in Florida attending his mom's funeral gave Sara opportunities too try to start over

One of the first things she did was apply at one of the apartment buildings for her own apartment. Then she placed an ad online looking for a roommate someone who was also looking to start over after days of searching reading endless responses she found one his name was dean and he was from out west he was 10 yrs younger but seemed to really have a good head on his shoulders he has a bachelors degree in business and also a semi pro football player Sara was very attracted to him he seemed loving and kind and a Christian man also looking for a new start. They spoke several times

While gene was still away. Dean a 6' 4" dark brown hair and beautifully sculpted body and warm brown eyes making him irresistible to Sara

But still hesitant.

Then one night they had a conversation it went something like this

Sara" dean whets wrong I can hear in your voice something is wrong"

Dean" Sara I rather not talk about it I am really beginning to like your idea of me moving there I am so sick of Oregon right now"

Sara" well I love to help it seems like we can both help each other I need a personal trainer and a good friend and in exchange I will provide a ticket And housing until the day comes and you get on your feet"

dean" you will thanks and I promise Sara I will train you and help you I have always wanted to come to Michigan go to a Detroit lions game maybe try out I did two years semi- pro."

Sara" great and I just got word I am having my own apartment I can finally get away from gene and move on start over And I like to go to church I know you are a Christian and I need a positive person like you to show me the way"

dean" I promise we will help one another I am looking forward to it Sara thanks"

Sara" yes I will go online and call you with the info"
Dean" great"

Sara went online and in a manner of twenty minutes she had a ticket for dean to come to Michigan to start over She would call him back with the details that his flight was only one week later dean seemed excited and had relief he was going to be able to get his fresh start. They soon said "good night"

Each day after they kept in touch gene would not return home so Sara was able to speak freely with dean and her family about the new changes about to happen in her life.

a week later dean arrived at the metro airport Sara waited eagerly for his arrival she then saw him walking towards her standing 6' 4" weighing about 280 lbs of pure muscle wearing blue jeans and a black hooded sweatshirt she waived at him he at her when he walked up to her he gave her a big bear hug nearly squeezing the breath out of her "DEAN GOOD TO SEE YOU" he replies " AWESOME TO MEET YOU SARA"

Sara" welcome to the motor city the car is waiting ready to see your new home" he replies" yes I am hungry had a long flight"

Sara" I know just the place if you like hamburgers" dean replies" where " Sara" white castles they are my fave"

So they load up her blue mini van and she's drives the next 35 minutes to home they stop on the way going through the drive through

dean" we don't have one of these whets here" Sara" the best little burgers around if you don't like them we can get something else"

Dean" ok lets try it" so she ordered just 2 he tasted them" yes these are little pieces of heaven get me like 6 more"

Sara" mmmmmmmm glad you like them I think we both had a long day and I promised you a steak that will be our dinner tomorrow after we both rested"

So after they got 12 more she drove to thee apartment which were on the fifth floor over looking the river inside was a comfy brown couch

A big screen TV one queen size bed a comfy chair and all things they needed.

Dean took a few moments to look around "this is kind of nice I can be happy here it's going to take time I can't believe I am in Michigan"

Sara" yes your finally here welcome to our new home shall we eat before they get cold" dean "yes" they sat down together

at the tiny round kitchen table and ate what dean called " little pieces of heaven" and then they got settled in Sara offering dean half the space in the closet and in her dresser. They just put things away and talked and talked

Sara "I know its small but we have a nice view of the river

Dean' I like it Sara you worry too much this will take time adjusting for both of us I never lived with a woman much less an older woman'

Sara " your my second guy I lived with but my first younger guy dean it will take time but we will give things a go and see what happens"

Dean" one day at a time Sara"

Sara" agreed one day at a time so first things first let's hook up the cable and computer so we can watch TV and relax make yourself at home"

Dean "I think I am going to shower then help with the cable I been up almost all day had some drinks with buddies back home

Got sort of a foul smell"

Sara" ok towels are in the linen closet in the bathroom take your time I am just going to drink my soda and relax" He showered and then they hooked up the cable and the computer made phone calls home

Dean" better much better I feel clean and refreshed you want to watch one of my favorite shows from back home"

Sara " yeah love too'

They watched a show called "trailer park guys" it was three guys doing all kinds of crazy stuff like growing dope Thinking of schemes Sara loved it she busted up laughing on the floor "dean these guys are hilarious wow I really like them they are funny"

Dean" good we can watch every day glad you like them what's your fave stuff"

Sara" wrestling love wrestling and twilight maybe we can watch together one day you probably won't like it most guys don't"

dean " no I will watch you like my favorite show and most girls hate it so I don't mind watching with you its been a real long day you think we can just pick up from here in the morning"

Sara "yes I am going to shower and then get into bed being that were two adults its ok if you sleep in here"

dean" no not yet sweetie" Sara" ok cool may I have a hug" they exchanged a warm hug each replying" good night"

She showered quietly got into bed thinking how good the hug felt (he gives the most amazing hugs) I will pray things work out.

And after praying she got comfy in bed.

Day 2

dean and Sara woke up the next morning dean made them breakfast eggs and cheese on English muffins they sat together ate the round

Table Sara was impressed by deans cooking

"This is really good dean I am not good at making eggs thank you did you sleep ok?

dean" yeah the couch is ok I am thinking about sleeping in the bed on my side if your still cool with it"

Sara "yeah there is plenty of room have you come up with a work out regimen?"

dean" yep sure did it starts soon after we eat we can start"

Sara "just go easy I am new at this"

Dean "I won't be to harsh that's why I am here to be your trainer I not going to be easy on you"

Sara " ok I can do it just no laughing at my bad skills"

dean" no I swear no laughing"

So about 10 minutes later they started with cardio and stretching then he had her do 3sets of 20 of pushups, crunches and squats. Plus bicep and triceps, working out for 45 mins

Sara" I think your going to kill me it will all be worth it mind if I shower first"

Dean" no you earned it go ahead"

So about half hour later after both showered and dressed Sara wanted to show him around her town

Sara "are you ready too see our town"

dean" yeah"

The left her building and they went on a tour of her town just walking the apartments were only a 10 minute walk from the historical down town area she showed dean the shops, the library, some of beautiful churches, and she took him to her favorite little coffee shop called "the bistro"

And they each got a beverage and they sat at a park bench which was right down the street from "the bistro"

Sara" oks what are your thoughts"

dean" it's definitely a small little town nice going to take a lot of getting used to but nice"

Sara" yeah took me a few months to get used to it used to get lost just a couple times but I know this town inside out"

dean" and you were alone at least I have you, you seem so easy to get along with how could your ex treat you so badly"

Sara" I do not know he is just a mean, mean guy and your easy to get along with too I know were always going to be friends"

Dean "I think we will be for a long time ready to go"

Sara" yeah want to take the bus or walk"

Dean "walk"

So they walked home taking twenty minutes once they got home Sara had to go grocery shop

Sara" ok now its grocery time would like anything special?"

Dean " no but I got a question do you mind if I use chew?"

Sara " no it's fine by me your my friend and this is your home too I want you to feel at home"

Dean" thanks I just wanted to ask most my other girlfriends hated it"

Sara" I am different dean even if I were your girlfriend I would not mind I will be back in a while make yourself comfy"

Dean "ok see you later"

after Sara went shopping she returned home and dean helped put groceries away he liked the selection she picked out" you got N.Y. strip it's my fave" Sara" I remembered from a previous conversation I try to remember things especially when you like someone"

Dean" thanks your sweet I like you too"

Sara "thanks so dinner is a while a way want to watch our fave show"

Dean" was just thinking that"

So they watched a little TV had more conversation then Sara cleaned up for dinner put her hair up and began cooking the two steaks

Two baked potatoes and some nice red wine for dinner They sat at the table she served it he took his first bite and loved it" mmmmmmmmm very very good Sara

thank you"

Sara" your welcome glad you liked it was it worth that long plane ride?"

Dean" most definitely likes eating at a steak house where did you learn to cook?

Sara" just watching cooking shows and I got the recipe off line glad you like it we should make a toast to our first day here and to a brand new start"

Dean" cheers to a new start good food and new friends" they continued to eat and talk

Dean" I was not being nosy but I was needing paper to write stuff down and read the story you been writing it's really good"

Sara (was embarrassed but glad he liked it) "thanks I do not show that too anyone because it's just something I do for relaxing"

dean" its really good Sara you should finish it one day I be happy to help"

Sara" maybe just never showed any one and I like to have your help"

Dean" no problem I love writing myself I do some sports blogging I could edit for you"

Sara" that would be great so it's our second night here are you up to watching a movie?

dean" I got bunches on my ipod I got the Halloween movie we can watch that"

Sara" rob zombie version"

dean"yeah" Sara" he makes good movies let me get the dishes and we can relax watch the movie"

So after a while they each got comfy on the couch and they played the movie Sara made microwave popcorn

Every so often Sara would glance over his way "why are you staring" "um just looking sorry if I am making you uncomfortable"

dean" no it's cool" Sara" just almost in disbelief your here and I notice you have beautiful eyes they have these gold specks in them sorry now I am embarrassed"

Dean" thanks you have nice eyes yourself"

Sara smiled and blushed and continued watching the movie soon it was time for bed

They both said "good night see you in the morning" he politely took the couch but eventually ended up in there

his back was hurting

Sara didn't notice she was deeply sleeping. The next couple days they began to share more stuff and really get to become more comfortable with one another.

In the days ahead

Sara and deans friendship was just growing they pretty much kept the same routine am workouts which were now lasting a hour and then combined with a 30 minute brisk walk each day they took different ways so dean could see more of the town down by the park or down on the river walk dean was beginning to need time by himself Sara could sense it so instead of arguing Sara suggested he enter into a local poker tournament which was like a 20 minute walk

Sara" I know something that is your thing they have these poker tournaments deans my treat to you go and do your thing you can win $10,000"

Dean" how far is it"

Sara" just down the street from nick and nenos walking distance it cost like$ 25.00 just go win or lose you have fun and get a break from here I know its not easy for you here I wish it were"

dean" I wish it were too Sara its I am not used to living with a girl I had girls at home they would maybe spend the night but you know this is a challenge for me I will like the poker it's my thing"

Sara" just goes and when you win because I have faith you will you can take me to dinner"

Dean" it's a deal"

So awhile later he walked to the poker hall and registered for the tournament Sara spent some time on the computer

And writing a story that dean read sometime ago she wanted with all her heart to finish it there are so many things Sara wants to accomplish

she spent most her life helping others pleasing others and having dean move in with her and become her trainer and now a good friend was the one thing she done for herself she at the age of 35 is just now beginning to live she never dated like most girls back in high school she had always always been overweight and now she was taking those steps to change her life she was picked on and bullied by thin pretty girls

And guys who would say "Sara your pretty but I can't date a fat chick" and it hurt her feelings that's why she stayed in the abusive relationship
So long and that's why she fell in love with dean to her he was prince charming compared to any other guy she dealt with in the past he was nice and sweet and complemented her and she fell so in love with him because it was all she ever ever wanted but she knew down deep inside dean would only be a friend so while dean was still there she would savor every single second because he was her dream come true.

It was about 11:30 when he returned home Sara was trying to figure out by his expressions and could not" well how did you do"

he paused and hesitated "I WON I WON $500 dollars"" Sara " YES YES OMG I am so happy for you that's awesome dean you won how amazing is that"

Dean" looks like I am taking us to dinner tomorrow" they shared a celebratory hug and a kiss on the cheek Sara" yes that is so exciting well details please"

Dean "came in third place this older lady I kid you not won all of it she had a walker I was like no frickin way she kicked our butts must play a lot"

Sara" no way an old lady with a walker that's insane but hey I hope I can still move around when I am older"

Dean" you wanna have sex?"

Sara" yes I like that" so they closed the doors turned down all the lights and shared a most incredible night of sex pleasing to both of them" dean always left Sara completely satisfied and he liked it also he loved her huge breast and the way she gave him oral pleasure she also liked the way he gave her such pleasure as she never experienced with any other man she was always left with multiple orgasms and her body quivered every time.

That night he decided to sleep in bed with her they were just laying there and there was one bright bright shimmering star in the sky right outside the window dean noticed it the first night he was there and now "Sara that star is outside the window"

Sara "yes I never noticed it before it's like I swear its just for us kind of corny maybe but maybe a message from the heavens"

Dean" I am going to make a wish on it'

Sara" if you are wish big goes for gold"

dean " wait you sound pessimistic your supposed to be my smile remember"

Sara" I am trying I think this time I am aiming too high what I want more then anything is so close yet so far away it might as well be a million miles"

dean" Sara don't feel like that your a very attractive girl and you never ever know I got my wish have faith and you may get yours"

Sara" ok ok lets both make a wish"

They did and they kept it secret to themselves.

Sara just closed her eyes and cuddled up to him falling asleep.

Days later Sara had another surprise for dean

Sara" I have another surprise for you first I need to know how your conditioning is."

Dean" I am in ok shape why?

Sara" in two weeks we are going to an audition for the mma?

Dean " no frickin way"

Sara "ok if you don't want to go no big deal"

dean" yes yes frick yeah I want to go"

Sara" oks in two weeks we are going to this gym and you're going to meet with Jake and his brother Joe"

Dean" I need to really really get in shape Sara I am going to be running a lot and still working out with you and I want to teach you self defense so you can kick some butt"

Sara" so lots and lots of protein and workouts I think we should eat your favorites one more time before we train"

Dean" yes my little pieces of heaven white castle"

Sara" yes" they would enjoy it one more time before training.....

2 weeks later

Sara was starting to really see results meanwhile dean was home sick

Sara" I am really starting to see results dean your program is working I lost 7 lbs and think we should go celebrate"

Dean" yeah you are looking great I am not in no damn mood to go out Sara" she could feel his anger and got a little sad

Sara "I know maybe your home sick and I am not leaving you alone"

Dean" you know I am a big boy you don't have to hold my hand just go with your friends I don't fit in any ways"

Sara was upset but she just wanted to go to avoid any further arguments

Sara" I am going to go I can see you need time alone" she did get upset tried not to show it but dean sensed she was hurt he knew she liked him

But he still loved Michelle the woman from back home

Dean" I see you're upset"

Sara" its ok I will be fine I see you regret coming here I am going to have a good time we can talk when were both cooled down its you wanted a fresh start I am just trying to help"

Dean "we will talk tomorrow"

Sara went off with her friend patty she tried to have a good time at the club but realized dean maybe leaving sooner then she planned

And she was already so in love with him because he was everything gene wasn't

Meanwhile dean knew how she felt he did not want to hurt her but wanted to stay but also knew he would be craving sex and did not want any one hurt but they both had needs and desires for sex as two young adults.

The next morning they sat down had a heart to heart adult conversation

Dean" Listen I am sorry for the way I acted yesterday"

Sara "completely understandable dean I would probably be the same way if I were far from home"

Dean" thanks but I got to talk to you about something and I am meaning to hurt your feelings"

Sara" I think I know what's on your mind"

Dean" we are two young sexually active adults I love sex I know you do too and I am not as attractive to you as you are to me but I made a promise

And I will stay for two months but I want to know if we can still have sex without you getting hurt"

Sara" I am very grown dean and yes I am going to be honest I am very attracted to you your everything gene is not and you are my perfect man the man girls like me dream of and I am very capable of no strings sex if you want we have two months and I just want to have good memories for the time we have"

Dean" then we can have no strings sex and hopefully you don't get hurt because I care for you I really do but as a friend"

Sara" I am a big girl dean I can handle it if I become to the point to where I cant handle things I will send you home quicker lets just give this a try?"

Dean" lets do it and give this a try so you ready to work out"

Sara" a hug first'

Dean" come here sweetie" he then wrapped his big muscular arms around her and gave her a big hug she hugged back she loved his hugs to her they were amazing.

They worked out for the next 30 minutes and then showered Sara made scrambled eggs for both of them after breakfast she went on with her day

Working as a care giver while dean worked on line as a sports writer writing articles on the Detroit lions, the pistons, and other sports related news.

After she returned home she was curious about what type of girl dean was attracted to so she then asked

Sara" how was your day have you written any articles"

Dean "yep just finished one like to read it"

Sara" love too I do have a question what type girl are you attracted too?

Dean" not really one type but I really have a thing for the Goth look Elvira is pretty hot"

Sara" ok just curious let me read your work?

He showed her his work and she was very impressed
"dean I am not really a sports girl but this is some good stuff I am learning though"

dean" you like it" Sara" yes you write with such passion and facts you really give you're all I like some pointers for my writing"

Dean" yes I love to help that's why I am here"

Sara" and anything I can do to help you with your career I am here or just in general you know I got your back"

Dean" I know Sara your awesome I think its time for our fave show then some dinner"

Sara" yes I am thinking chicken parmesan?

Dean" sounds good everything you make has been good want to share a beer?

Sara" a couple sips I will go get it start our show"

She got his beer and herself a coke and they relaxed together watching "trailer park guys"

Dean" why did you ask what I was attracted to?"

Sara " got to know how to turn you on the sex may be no strings but its fun to work at it and turn each other on right who can just do it"

Dean" good point Sara very good point so what about you"

Sara" man in uniform and I love a muscular man you got that covered and something about you in your suit"

Dean" thanks for the info here take a sip' she took a couple sips of his beer and they watched the show for about an hour then she cooked dinner. Dean liked her cooking and liked hanging out with her he did wish he was more attracted to her and Sara did too but they were very good

With their friendship and they became closer every day. It would soon be their first time.....

Their first time together.

It was a Friday night after they had their discussion about the no strings attached sex and it was around 8 pm Sara had taken a shower and

She decided to try having sex with dean so she put on fishnet stockings high heeled boots and a low cut black dress and black lipstick

She wore her hair up with some curls and a dog collar giving herself that total Goth look that dean was attracted too, she walked out and stood by the door "is there any thing you like?" Dean really liked what he saw he was turned on he walked over and gave her a deep sensuous kiss

Leaving Sara completely breathless "you look amazing Sara damn your hot!" Sara replies "I want too if you want too?"

Dean looked her over all up n down "yes" he took her hand led her into the bedroom shut the door put some sexy music

And laid her down on the bed removing her boots and his shirt revealing his muscular body so very sculpted Sara was in complete lust

He then lay on the bed and her arms went around him pulling him close to her he kissed her very passionately on her soft supple lips and her neck

Her fingers ran down his back and through his hair he was slowly removing her dress and her stocking he ripped the off with his bare hands and

Took off his shorts she then kneeled before him using her mouth to pleasure him orally his penis was growing and became hard he laid her down and slid it inside of her thrusting and moving into her she moaning out in such pleasure she experienced a orgasm like never before making her body quiver and want him eagerly she cried out " yes I feel so good more please dean I want more"

he replied" I want to give you more you feel so good baby"

he then bent her over and entered her from behind reaching around caressing her round full breast both moaning in such pleasure as he and she moved together in sync him thrusting his erected penis inside of her wet vagina they made love about 45 minutes both exhausted And feeling so incredible.

Soon they both showered and recouped

Sara asked" how was everything?" Dean" it felt so good after I got going I like your curvy soft body"

Sara" I like your muscular manly body so rock hard I liked it dean I hope we do it again"

Dean "we will not tonight want to watch our favorite show and relax"

Sara "yes you want a cold one?"

Dean" just water thanks" Sara" be right back" she went and got water for both of them made dean's favorite kettle corn

And they stretched out on the bed and watched "trailer park guys" talking and laughing just like normal there was no awkwardness between them which was good Sara was relieved, so was dean. Dean double checked "hey Sara are you ok" "yes I am were like sex buddies its very cool dean

I am so comfortable with you" dean" yeah sex buddies I like that your one cool chick"

Sara" thanks dean your awesome your self I just love hanging out with you I hope we are friends a long, long time"

Dean " yep me too"

They continued on with their relationship very much the same over the next week morning workouts, breakfast, Sara off working while dean worked online back at the apartment and occasionally having some really good sex.

But Sara soon had a surprise for dean a very special day she planned.

It was the next morning Sara had a big smile on her face dean was thinking it was just from the night before Sara" ok I can't holds my smile any longer I got a surprise for you!"

dean" what is it"

Sara handed dean two tickets for a Detroit lions football game that was for that day he looked and was excited he answers" are we really going to a game"

Sara " yes I bought them the moment I knew you were coming you told me no but I wanted to give you a dream come true you know your helping me

And it's just a thank you"

Dean gave Sara the biggest hug picked her right off the ground "your one cool chick Sara your so awesome yes!" Sara" your crushing me" he gently put her back down" yes I am really excited to I love to see you smile it brightens my whole day"
Dean" I can't wait its going to be a good night thank you for not listening to me"
Sara" you're welcome"

They both had to get ready it was a one o'clock game and 35 minute drive it was 11 am so they both showered got dressed
And Sara let dean drive to the game. They took their seats in the lower bowl in the center of the field the 50 yard line

Sara bought them each Detroit lions sweatshirts.

dean" these are really great seats Sara this is the best day so far"
Sara "hope you have a good time it makes up for you being homesick"
Dean "oh heck yeah this is awesome I am here at a Detroit lions game with my best friend having a blast"

During the game they yelled and cheered dean taught Sara a couple of things about football , they just had an absolute blast
Cheering and eating hot dogs drinking beer, more cheering and yelling "GO GO GO" and TOUCHDOWN or "BAD CALL REF"
Sara was happy because dean was happy she just couldn't stop smiling and for the first time in a while Sara was happy too
She was hoping the moment would last forever soon after the game she took dean all around the city of Detroit And she saw the city that she lived in her whole life taking things for granted she saw the city and the entire beauty dean pointed out to her
All the things she over looked dean who was new to the city showed her and for the first time she saw how great her city really was
The day was magical for both she showed him Comerica park, the casinos, hockey town, the fox theater, just all the sights of down town Detroit

Sara saw most of her life but seeing things with a fresh pair of eyes it was like seeing them for the first time.

Sara" wow this is so amazing dean I lived here my whole life and being here with you is such a beautiful experience its like I am seeing things for the first time"

dean" everyone at some point takes things for granted because it's always there you know I am starving lets go get some good food"

Sara " yes I am starving too they have some real good Mexican food down here"

Sara took them to Armando's a very authentic Mexican restaurant

Dean "nice little Mexican place"

Sara " yes we used to eat here a lot when we lived in Detroit I am glad I could chase away some of those home sick blues"

dean" you did a great job thank you I got to ask what is one thing you always wanted to do and never done"

Sara" it's not a big deal it's not like it could happen"

Dean" comes on where friends in every way after last night and today just tell me"

Sara" I never been to prom or a high school dance and I always wanted to go"

Dean" you're really a cute girl I can't believe you never went"

Sara" thanks and no I never went I once even thought of hiring a escort and paying like$ 500 bucks to do just that" no sex involved just dancing"

Dean" it's that important to you"

Sara yeah"

Dean took note of everything and he was thinking for all she's done for me I will one day do this for her

Dean" who knows Sara dreams come true mine did"

Sara "you're right I had a really good time today dean thank you for showing me my own city"

Dean" I had an awesome time a memory I will have forever"

Sara" me too the food looks good"

Dean " it does pass me the...

Sara" it's in front of you I know you like hot sauce so I put it next to you when we got here"

Dean" you are on the ball Sara why do remember everything like all the little details"
Sara" because your important to me dean and its little things dean that mean a lot" and her thoughts (and I love you but you will never know)
Dean" just try some of my hot sauce its good"
She shook her head no but she tried just a bite "aaaagh are you crazy that's hot"
He was laughing "sorry it's your face "
Sara" you are going to get paid back one day" Sara said and she bust out laughing too " I can't be mad at you I can not do that awful stuff"
Dean "made you laugh and I like it besides I seen some stuff you eat or drink your flat coke every morning and peanut butter on everything"
Sara " don't hate my peanut butter or my flat pop I love it just eat your hot sauce were both alike yet different you got to have some differences in any relationship its what makes it interesting" dean" very true"
they talked more finished eating took home left overs they were both exhausted after having one long day it was awesome for both of them..

It was now one month after Sara met dean and their relationship was just going great they had become good friends by now and were completely comfortable with one another talking about everything and any thing and one night Sara and dean got into a very serious Discussion about their pasts they talked awhile about their childhoods and teen years and past relationships.

Dean" you feel like talking about our past that's one thing we have never really spoken about I like to see old pics of you just growing up"
SARA" yes I love to share with you I wish you had pics for me to look at but I love to share with you your one of the people I feel I can open up to"
DEAN "ok you go first"

Sara "ok well I was born and raised in Detroit by my grandparents and my aunt Debbie and I had a good childhood did all the stuff little kids do ride your bikes roller skate, my friends were mainly my cousins to this day we are all fairly close we used to just play back yard wrestling, softball, go to the park, had to be in by the street lights we spent many summers up north my summers are just like the kid rock song " all summer long" its about the same when we were teens we got drunk chilled by the bonfire swam in the lake just doing anything for fun our family is always been close my grandparents when they were alive they held all the family get togethers Christmas, Easter, birthdays now the families are somewhat drifted apart but still close

They my cousins are all married and have children me I never could I had the pre stages of cervical cancer two years ago so I had a partial hysterectomy

But one day if I ever marry I may adopt. And I have only really had two relationships gene my ex I need to stay away he was abusive mentally and physically

Which you already know most of the reason your here to be my own personal angel and you have been great one of the best friends I ever had (and still do)"

Dean " I grew up with my dad and two brothers Justin he's older and Cameron hes younger and our dad our childhood was all about sports,

Football, wrestling, baseball, fighting sometimes, and once and a while we saw our mom and baby sister Mila she's with our mom

But for the most part it was normal I did all the same stuff you did but our family is not as close as yours I wish they were our grandparents have most holidays and then I go to my moms its just a bunch of guys at my house and I am not really used to living with a woman this is so different then seeing Michelle on weekends and going back home were together every day I like it but also wish I had my own place your a cool chick but we are together everyday

I was always into sports football and wrestling that's how I got into college on a sports scholarship and I wish I would have went to a different college I stayed in Portland for a girl now sort of regret it I had the potential of being pro Sara"

Sara" I know you do dean your still young and your definitely in shape for the pros I see you and now I see all those guys and you are definitely in there league you could go back to college to just play football can't you and get recruited and become professional you were semi pro that is a good record dean you really should try I would be there for you and support you as your friend and help encourage you if that's what you want? your good and you should not always underestimate your self your helping me I lost 10 pounds I can run now I never ever ran before seriously and you helped me do that for that I will always be grateful"

dean" I know you would stand behind me and I care deeply for you for that I would like to be your friend always even though I am all the way in Portland and your here in Michigan there's always a plane ride?

Sara" yes there is I wish I could get you into the pros but I can't your one of the only people I do anything for"

Dean "why me what's so special about me?"

SARA" ok well you remind of this guy growing up his name was Robert and he was only 3 years younger then me but he was so grown up for his age so wise and lived a hard life he was born with a whole in his heart and myself and my cousin Denise took a liking to him he had a friend Rudy and the 4 of us were inseparable I used to tell Robert anything anything he was a best friend and a little brother to me and you have the same qualities about you your personality shines brighter then anyone I know and Robert may have had a bad heart but it was one of biggest hearts I ever seen he always smiled and played

And dean you remind me of him in everyway your smile lights up a room and you got that caring nature about you that you yourself do not see but I do

he took one secret to his grave back in high school I was raped and I never told anyone but him it was by a classmate with red hair and I told Robert because he was like my brother I knew he would never tell a soul but he told the guys I was hurt by this guy who done this to me no details just that I was hurt and they hurt him dean they cut his brake line and he is dead and for years I suffered with that inside of me and I have threw therapy and everything and you remind of him

And it's like he's up in heaven watching over me like he sent me you he was a Christian and so are you and that's what is so special about you"

Tears made Sara's eyes swell up thinking about Robert her long kept secret and she wished with all her heart that dean would always be her friend

Dean" Sara I am so sorry you went through such a terrible thing and now I understand more why you care about me so much" Sara (I hope you do) " so now you know why our friendship is important"

Dean" I do come on lets get your eyes dried up and relax"
Sara" thank you"
they exchanged a warm comforting hug.

dean had went out for the evening with his friend he met through Sara Frankie Frankie was a guy friend of saras 31 years old living in the same building both sports fanatics and loved to play Xbox.

They had went to the local bar to shoot some pool and get a couple beers it was around 11:30 pm and Sara already asleep

dean walked in woke Sara up " how was your night dean" dean" great we hustled these punks out of a couple hundred bucks playing pool"

Sara "that's awesome dean I like to learn how to play a better game dinners in the microwave sweetie if your hungry"

Dean" thanks I am going to eat then crash"
Sara " good night'

He warmed up the tacos Sara made for dinner ate showered and crawled into bed naked he snuggled up against Sara "your naked"

"YEAH are you cool with it you know you look so good tonight baby" "I am tired but your irresistible"

she rolled over towards him and he leaned over her he began kissing her and he removed her shorts and she took off her shirt and he was caressing her breast so slowly he felt a lump and was scared but he continued to make love to her they kissed and she nibbled him on his earlobe he loved it he was turned on he closed his eyes and began kissing her more passionately and he slowly entered her womanhood thrusting himself deep inside feeling the moist tenderness of her body and his they moved so well together it was always so mind blowing

she always kissed the right spots nibbled his ear and took his bulging manhood in her mouth and he would finish by squirting on her breast and face making her soaked in love juices.

dean" Sara that was incredible but I need to tell you something" Sara" I know no strings attached."
dean took her hand "no listen to me when I was touching you I felt a lump and I am very concerned here feel it" he took her hand to the spot and she felt it she became panicked and frightened " omg dean I had the beginning stages of cervical cancer now this what if it is cancer you know my grandmother and cousins passed with breast cancer and it scares me" she began just crying on his shoulder "I am so scared dean"

dean" tomorrow we will call the doctors ok and get you an appointment listen if anything is wrong you found it early" he comforted her for awhile

then she showered and continued to examine it Sara" if it is cancer I am glad you found it because I check all the time but never felt it will you come with me I know your here as my trainer but we become good friends"
Dean" I hate hospitals but yes I will go"
Soon they fell asleep both tossed and turned she got an appointment days later he went with her
And one week later results came in

The phone call came in
The doctor Dr. Andrews "Sara the results are negative its just fibrocystic growths non cancerous"
Sara (happy) "it's non cancerous" dean" great news now you can relax me to I was worried Sara we are like family now I sincerely care about you and I would have stayed if you needed me"
Sara" blurted out I LOVE YOU" um I didn't mean that don't freak out I was just excited about the results you know"

dean " are you in love with me " she turned so bright red she was embarrassed " YES YES OK I LOVE YOU" and its not going to change your feelings now I just made things so damn awkward dean I never wanted

you to know how I felt because I know you love Michelle and it hurts

I should be used to guys not returning my love your a good friend and I don't want to ruin things"

Dean" hey doesn't beat yourself up you're a great girl and you will find that man who will love you back your cancer free lets celebrate

Go out just for awhile and give me time I think I got a way to put a smile on your face.

Sara "ok be back in a couple hours"

Dean" I will text when I am ready".....

Dean and Sara at the restaurant

Sara" are you really going to try that challenge?"

Dean" yes you know I love hot stuff"

Sara" yes I certainly do we have like three different bottles of hot sauce you really did look good out there it made me cringe and cover my eyes I do want you to succeed"

Dean "what are your goals"

Sara" losing weight finding that one perfect guy, writing a story and finishing it and moving out of Monroe"

dean" you write really well Sara I know because its what I do for a living that and train people I have always wanted to do mma or football I am a big guy its what I am made for"

Sara" definitely a serious option thanks for the complements your really a sweet guy I am definitely going to miss you when you do go"

Dean" looks like I am here for a while longer I have a chance at my dream Sara"

Sara" remember me"

Dean "I will always remember you your going to be my manager remember"

Sara" yes I know I will well time for your challenge" the owner started the clock dean began eating the wings he hot down only 12 when time ran out they were so incredibly hot he had tears in his eyes his face was red

He gave it his best shot they left dean was disappointed Sara

attempted to cheer dean up

Sara "you did your best dean don't beat your self up sweetie" dean (angry) " is that all you frickin do is try to fix everything and comfort people I not your frickin child Sara quit frickin acting like your my mother with your sweetie this and sweetie that"
He walked away from Sara fastly leaving her behind she was ready to cry she was so hurt by his actions when they returned to thee apartment

Sara felt pain in her right side and was screaming in pain dean still angry "what are you trying for damn sympathy"

"No no please I am hurting please call for help" he realized she was serious when she fell down and there was blood he began freaking out he called there friend

anjuril to take her to the hospital and felt bad about a hour later anjuril texted dean it was a cyst on saras ovaries they would give her pain medicine and send her home

They called the obgyn he was delivering a baby so the nurse made her an appointment the next morning

She returned home still upset with dean

Dean "Sara I am sorry I acted like a jerk"

Sara" I forgive you please lye with me tonight I am a little scared I got to go see my doctors in the morning"

Dean helped her into bed "what happened"

Sara" a cyst burst on my ovaries I had them before there is a small chance its cancer but very very slim another common thing for women my age I will be ok"

Dean "you have to be ok Sara you got to help train me well motivate me I snapped because I am not good with failure you know and like I said I live with guys no damn sympathy from guys
I am not used to the nurturing stuff"

Sara" wish you would get used to it rub my back on the right side where it hurts"

Dean" needs some practice on getting used to a woman"

He rubbed her back a few minutes and she fell quickly asleep.....

Dean wanted to cheer Sara up because she was feeling so bad so he ordered Sara's favorite pizza cheese with pineapple

And he got some of her favorite goodies from the store cookies and cream ice cream and some Swedish fish they were little red gummy fish

Not apart of the diet they been on but Sara needed cheering up he made a cd with all music from 1980,s on it with van halen, rick Springfield, Bon jovi run dmc, and others he just wanted to thank her for everything she's done for him.

He picked out a movie from the 80s they could sit and watch "bill and teds excellent adventure"

He texted her and she returned home to her apartment

She walked in heard the music " you did all this for me dean"

Dean" yes welcome to the 1980s Tonight we have a classic movie "bill and teds excellent adventure one of your favorites,
We have music from your fave decade and cheese and pineapple pizza"

Sara" I am so impressed I am feeling so much better
what will you eat you hate pineapple pizza "

Dean "just enjoy it Sara"

Sara "yes yes thank you you don't know how incredible this is dean thank you" she reached up gave him a big hug "thank you so much"

Dean" your welcome are you ready for the movie"

Sara" yah almost let me get comfy and get some food this is awesome"

So she got comfy in her t shirt and his green shorts and got the pizza they stretched out on the couch and she laughed she forgot all her troubles for awhile and just had a good time with dean

Sara "how did you know these candies are my favorite?
dean " I called frank you two are close and he helped me its cheating but from now on I will remember"

Sara " this whole night is like many nights when I was 19 a favorite movie of mine and my friends right down to the candy the music all of it dean you really are a good friend you want to play cards I do ok at texas hold em"

Dean" nickels and dimes"

Sara " yes nickels and dimes tonight is forget all our worries night its really a blessing having you as a friend I wish we lived closer I am going to miss you when you go" dean" likewise maybe I will come back and visit you never know Sara"

Sara" no I guess you never know come on its time for me to take all your money"

Dean" I am the pro remember and I think I am taking all of your money sweetheart"

Sara "some fighting words big guy bring it on young blood"

Dean" you got it old lady"

they teased one another the rest of the night laughing hysterically and at the end of the night dean did win but it all in fun and they just had a blast reminiscing on childhood and how they grew up the mood was a very playful mood that night Sara would never forget it was the nicest thing anyone's done for her in a long long time dean was really beginning to like Sara but he love for Michelle kept him distant from Sara or any female

he also had a fear of commitment and in some ways so did Sara dean was young and not ready to settle down even though they both had feelings for one another dean suppressed his a lot more then Sara did Sara went to bed hoping she could somehow figure out a way to reach him but did not want to press the issue she would begin to pray about it she was using her newly restored faith in god thanks to dean who was Christian and Sara

Who had love for god but still struggling with everything?

Over the next week they worked on those issues together and getting back to a diet and exercise routine so Sara could reach her goal weight.

Still their friendship grew more and more with each passing day.....

Dean starting to train with Joe & a couple of fun nights out

During the next six weeks dean began a nonstop 8 hour days of just running, sit ups, crunches, hitting the punching bag,

Learning the submission holds how to apply them how to escape them and vice versa he was gaining strength

And agility running faster his body was stronger Sara trained for about an hour every other day with him

Just to drop her weight and get her body into shape again.

Dean had reached his goal weight of 240 and his muscles

were tighter his body in peak performing condition

Joe was training him hard he was so sore at the end of most days Sara always had meals ready and a massage to go with it

She was his friend/ his personal assistant

Sara " you are really looking incredibly buff I cant believe how good your looking this has been one crazy ride we get a few days off then its

All off to Florida where the competition begins I am so excited I know I can't stay the whole time but I want to have time with you"

Dean "no you are staying with me you introduced me to Joe you are my assistant I know it does not pay but one day Sara it will pay off big time

So will you be my assistant"

Excitedly "YES" "of course I will be honored to be your assistant we have a couple of days what would you like to do"

Dean " take you out for dinner you cook like everyday and soon it's on the road with nothing but protein and broccoli

So let's go get some Chinese and go bowling do something fun"

Sara" plays some pool maybe Chinese sounds good"

Dean" we just need to cut loose relax I have trained hard and on Sunday it's my first paid fight if I win I get a paycheck if not

I go to the bottom I got to go up the ladder one step at a time Sara tonight is all about fun"

Sara "then lets go have fun you have been working so hard I know I am ready for fun"

They went to the bowling alley and ordered some food played a couple games just talked and laughed Sara was not the good dean was trying to teach her he stood behind her and guided her arm "ok just relax and pull back and let go you will get it"

And she listened to him and knocked down six pins Sara
" yes I did it it's not a strike but I am having a blast"

Dean" see you just have to relax have fun have a good time Sara you got another chance lets make this fun if you get a strike

I will kiss you"

Sara "ok you're on a strike for a kiss especially the kisses you give yummy"

Dean laughs

"Your kisses are improving too"

It came down to Saras last turn "this is it no strikes no kiss"

and she took her turn she closed her eyes and concentrated then she remembered what dean said and she released the ball and crash all the pins went down she was so excited " did you see that dean I did it I did it y..... (Before she could finish yes he kissed her taking her breath away)

dean" YOU did it baby I guess in order to get you to do anything all I have to do is kiss you"

Sara shakes her head yes " uh huh"

Dean smiles at her "ready to go its late "

Sara "yep lets get home get some sleep"

Sara drove home and they walked in the door

Dean "Sara do you love me"

Sara" what kind of question is that"

Dean "do you love me"

Sara "I am not going to answer because you will not say it back"

Dean "just come on Sara do you love me"

Sara "yes"

She walked away in tears "why do you have to make cry dean"

Dean" I love you too"
Sara" don't do this dean" dean" no seriously I love you I know you never expected me to say that but everything you done I do love you"

Sara " love you I love you too dean" they embraced she still had tears in her eyes they shared a long warm hug he pulled her closer

And took her into the bedroom and made love to her they would shower and lay together afterwards just cuddle and talk

He rubbed her head gently until she fell asleep Sara's attitude changed drastically she was more focused and clear she began writing more

And that made the mood in the apartment much better both their attitudes got much better deans also became less depressed more focused

He felt more of a winner and less of a failure he was feeling accomplished even if he did not make it he knew this was his best opportunity

They focused more on both careers, on god much more and less on arguing or negative stuff.

Two days later on the flight to Florida....

Dean accompanied Sara to her obgyn appointment she got checked on the table dean held her hand and looked away they did a ultrasound

And examination 45 mins later the doctor comes back into the room

Dr. Khagany" Sara we have your results and we found a small mass on the ovaries after the cyst burst it is cancer but not fatal we found everything in time again just like we did we the cervix and surgery is your best option or we can proceed with radiation even though you only have ovaries
You have eggs"

Sara" no doctor I do not want a child please do the surgery I know I am young but radiation will make me sick"

dr.khagany "ok let's go see Arianna she will schedule you and appointment do not cry Sara is this your boyfriend"
Sara "good friend"
Dr. Khagany "ok good friend will you be taking care of Sara"
dean" its dean and yes doc anything she needs"
They scheduled it for two weeks later

Sara was still scared out of her mind dean did his best to comfort her. Over the next two weeks dean help Sara lose more weight
While dean trained and the day before Sara's surgery she was by his side for his first fight

Fight night (Sunday October 11th) dean bout was the opening match against a guy Tim Slater he was 6'2" and weighing 255 with red hair (LOL!!!)
Dean weighing in at 275 standing 6' 4" with brown hair wearing white trunks with his logo done in black with silver trim.

Sara sat ring side she was nervous watching dean step into the cage and Slater that red head she just booed him and cheered dean

Slater came at dean with punches and kicks dean came back with more of his own then dean Slater had dean in a sleeper hold dean powered his way out of it and had Slater on the mat using his strong legs to put on a figure four he held on with all he had and Slater tapped out 1...2.....3...

They rose up dean's arm in victory Sara was so proud she wanted to run and jump on him but instead she just congratulated him with a hug

She kept her feelings inside

Sara" you did it you won dean you won this is great I am so incredibly proud"

Dean "I won this is such a good feeling tomorrow the doc is going to knockout that cancer like I took down Slater"

Sara" yes so where do we go and celebrate "

Dean "if you weren't having surgery out but since you are home lets take home a couple of beers and pizza it's early"

Sara "sounds like my kind of celebration as soon as I am healed we are going to outback's"

Dean" that's a deal"

They went back to the apartment and just talked and talked they made love one last time knowing Sara would not be able too for almost two months. So he just took his time with her caressing her body kissing her all over Sara returning the warm touches and sensual kisses and it was just a magical night he won his first fight Sara got her wish dean made love to her.

Surgery day (October 12th)

The nurse prepped her for surgery and dean came in too see her before they took her down

Sara" I know I will be ok dean but promise me you will go after your dream if something happens"

Dean "don't talk like that ok you will be ok"

The nurse came in "ok Sara time to go"

She would say quietly hoping he did not hear ("I love you) he pretended not to hear but he did he loved her just not in the way Sara loved him

He shouted "you will be fine"

He waited patiently for her to come out about two hours later she was in her room

Sara "your here"

dean" yes I told you I would be you been at my side always how do you feel"

Sara " I hurt so bad dean I am in a lot of pain but I am glad you are here you do have to stay long just a while ok I will be sleeping alot"

He stayed a couple more hours held her hand got her water and any thing she needed she rested soon but before he left they prayed together

And he gave her a teddy bear he then kissed her for head and went to their apartment.....

Two days later....

October 14th - 21st (Sara healing& dean training)

Dean drove Sara home to the apartment and he made her comfortable in the bed all she had to do was call out for him and he was there

He trained in the apartment moving furniture around so he could get in his workouts Sara had purchased him a set of interchangeable weights so he could continue to lift Sara" dean look in the closet got you something to help you train inside I know you're giving up a lot for me and vice versa I just want you to know I really appreciate all you do just look"

To his surprise he saw the weights he was excited "Sara thanks you're the best how did you even get these in here"

Sara" Frankie he did it when you were with me at the hospital"

dean" sneaky but I love it just holler if you need anything ok I am right out here"

Sara "pain pill and soda and I am going to rest"

He got her pain medicine and some soda then she fell asleep he got busy working out he made some grilled cheese for lunch it was Sara's favorite

And she woke up to eat and then right back to bed "thank you dean those are my favorite I am just so sore I will be thankful when I can sit up just awhile"

dean" rest sweetie you will bounce back in no time I am a big boy heal so you can train with me"

Sara" not anytime soon but as soon as I can I am so lifting weights" over the next few days dean took care of Sara working out inside making Sara his famous grilled cheese and ramen noodles eating protein for himself to bulk up and shape up Sara sat up only a few hours a day she had to sit on comfy pillows to be comfortable.

Dean was happy that Sara was now getting around by her self he kept a good eye on her while training for his next fight and hopefully a career in

The MMA his dream

Sara wanted to write a book and perhaps get into the medical field she was already a caregiver

Sara was feeling ok enough just to go for a short walk so she decided to go with dean for a very short walk they walked like two blocks and she began hurting " ok dean I am too sore I think I need to slow down I am hurting "

Dean "you can make it sweetie just walk slow we will get you a pain pill and into bed"

That's exactly what happened

Sara" looking forward to feeling better and seeing your dreams come true"

October 25th

Sara was starting to feel much much better dean was able to leave Sara and start back running cross training going to the power house gym they still made time to listen to James on the radio broadcast every Sunday Sara was beginning to lead a more Christian life along with dean even though

They had minor struggles and disagreements as any good friends sometimes do but a good friend always loves and forgives

His match was coming up on the 30th and Sara wanted to be there.

October 30th (deans 2nd match) it was held in Toledo Ohio in a small gym with bleacher seats and an octagon ring

Sara sat ringside with dean's friend Frankie

He would be in the 3rd bout of the evening facing an Italian guy from jersey named Sammy "the bull" had the whole Guido look about him

Standing 6' 5" and weighing 270 lbs wearing the Italian colors red, green and white and dean had black and white trunks with white skulls

On the sides he shaved his head and had only a goatee looking very intense and intimidating

The match started and the guy was brutally tough just street fighting against dean both guys getting busted up dean got the knockout spear

Taking Sammy "the bull" down and the bell rang dean had his hand raised high in victory getting his second win
under his belt

Joe was very impressed and dean had only one more fight to train for and win after the trainers cleaned both fighters up they showered and Ended up celebrating for the evening even though Sara was still sore she pushed through the pain to celebrate

"YOU DID IT DEAN YOU GOT YOUR SECOND WIN THIS IS SO INCREDIBLE I AM IN PAIN BUT TONITE WE CELEBRATE"

Dean" YES THIS IS THE BEST YOU THINK YOU CAN DRINK"

Sara" I will have one to toast you I will drive us home you and Frankie drink celebrate"

Frankie" tonight is good frickin night bro"

So they hit the club all in a good mood drinking dancing until.....

Sara with excitement in her voice" omg what are you doing here you told me you were not coming back I am so excited dean"

dean" surprise I wanted to surprise you and I thought long and hard did some soul searching I guess and I am where I need to be for the moment I got to see if I can do this cage fighting Sara its what I wanted either that or a football player I let that pass me by for a girl I am not letting any more opportunities pass me by"

Sara" I pray and hope everything works out I know we had our share of ups and downs all good friendships/relationships of any kind do dean"

They went and sat Sara got them each a soda ordered in Chinese food dean was hungry and tired it was a long flight.

"Ordered up Chinese if I would have known I would have gotten your favorite Michigan food"

Dean" ahh yes my little pieces of heaven white castle"

Sara" yes I am just glad your here lets sit relax talk I had some trying times while you were gone gene tried one last time to get me back I threatened him with jail"

dean" I am proud of you Sara you do not need him not at all even after I leave again I will teach you to be strong minded and we will teach you to protect your self"

Sara" I love to learn a little self defense it will be good for me I want to ask about home but if it all negative maybe another time dean"

Dean" not just now I just got back here and let's talk positive stuff I got my fight in 2 days and I need to concentrate on that"

Sara" yes your opponent is about your size I did my scouting got some video which may help you know his style has ironically a redheaded dude named James"

Dean" Sara and her dislike for the ginger heads "they both laughed Sara" sorry I just don't like them my bad ok I faithfully watched football while you were gone the redskins won both games"

Dean" so did the lions surprisingly"

Sara" yes Shaun hill he was great and Adrian Peterson, oh and my boy tom Brady"

Dean" you're learning I am so proud my girl knows her football"

Sara" yes I am trying dean I am trying don't laugh but I burnt like ten grilled cheeses while you were gone I just do not have that knack I get rich you are my chef"

Dean" deal" then their food arrived they sat at the table Sara got out his hot sauce before he could even ask "hot sauce"

dean" your good"

Sara" thank you thank you"

They ate talked

dean" anything else happen while I was gone if gene keeps bugging you I will do something"

Sara " I will let you this time because I do not want him in my life dean I want to be a strong independent woman I am 35 and I need to be able to live for me and stand on my own two feet"

dean " before I go back home or wherever I end up I will make sure of it Sara I care about you a lot and we will be friends hopefully by the grace of god forever"

Sara" I have been listening to James and reading the bible and things for the first time ever are becoming clear you need god in your life to succeed to prosper I have always believed in god but now its different I want god in my life dean it will take time you do not change over night I believe that's why your here"

Dean" who knows Sara you may be right I may be here to help you and you help me the food is good I had such a long day sweetie"

Sara" I do not mind get a shower and go on in the bed I will sit out here quietly"

Dean " you sure"

Sara" yeah goes on get some good sleep " minutes later after a warm shower he changed into red shorts and crashed in the bed Sara sat up quietly and a while later she got on her side of the bed fell asleep.

The next day he was back running and training hard he had to get into shape and get into the best shape he could so he ate protein drank plenty of water and Gatorade and took proper vitamins to stay refreshed and energized

Fight night...

They had drove to Monroe sports complex where things were set up and if dean won it was a 1 year contract to train professionally

For cage fighting mma and the prize money was $ 500.00 plus the chance to go on to be on live TV in one year but he had to prove himself

And keep winning plus $ 500.00 for every fight won over the next year and if he picked up sponsors etc.....

He went into the locker room with his trainer Joe and best friend Frankie while Sara sat ring side and watched anxiously

About one hour later dean made his entrance wearing colors from his home town of Oregon green and yellow weighing in at 272
Standing at 6' 4"

His opponent about 300 even standing 6' 7" deans had his match cut out for him but he went at his opponent mad max

With full force blows and his roundhouse kick with his huge legs that were built like tree trunks and he was just a power house

Mad max got in a few upper cuts and kicks of his own making this an edge of your seat fight

Dean got from behind and pulled him down with leg strength only doing a head scissor take down and his powerful figure four leg submission type

Maneuver the ref counted 1..... 2.... 3.... Dean was the victor he had won his contact and the third fight Sara ran in the ring raised his arm up in victory she was so happy for him his trainer Joe congratulated him "you did it bro you took down mad max and you won my respect kid"

dean" yeah this is worth all that training Joe thank you, Sara, Frankie could not have done it without any of you"

Frankie" lets go home bro no bars not tonight"

Dean "no hell no not after last time "

Sara "I got a surprise for everyone we are going to celebrate but no bar boys you go shower Dean Frankie your clothes are in the locker room

Joe got you something too I got to go get changed excuse me boys"

Sara had them a hotel suite at a Hilton in Toledo with champagne she had a spread of cocktail shrimp, steaks, potatoes, chicken, pastas, Desserts, along with music and more friends awaiting in the room the evening cost Sara about $ 1,000. Dollars but it was worth it To be safe

they walked in Sara wore a nice black dress and black stockings turned dean on he really liked Sara when she was all dressed up

Dean" you did all this for me Sara"

Sara" you needed to celebrate dean this is your dream come true you got your contract "

Dean" your something else Sara you look nice tonight come here" he pulled her close for a soft long kiss and she kissed back that kiss alone made it all worth spending the money

Everyone enjoyed the evening, the food, the dancing, the champagne, hours later everyone was gone except Sara and dean

Sara " I know you don't have feelings for me like I do you but it's ashamed to let the Jacuzzi go to waste"

dean" for all you do its not going to waste tonight I am going to give you what you been wanting"

and he took his time with her made love to her tenderly and slowly he danced with her first and told her how beautiful she was his dreams were about to come true and there was no way he could forget the one person who helped get him that far

Sara" you feel so incredible next to me holding me and making love to me I will always remember this night years later when I am remembering you"

Dean" me too we will have many more victories ahead of us but tonight was both of our nights Sara you got what you wanted and I have to say I am beginning to have deeper feelings for you"

Sara " shhhhhhhhhh not now" and she just placed her lips on his and kissed him so passionately he could feel her body wanting his and how much she did love him they were both exhausted falling asleep until 10 am when she had room service delivered pancakes and juice
They ate and checked out dean drove home while Sara just took in the moment.....

The day after

Sara and dean returned home dean was excited and so was Sara " dean I can not believe your living your dream your getting too train for street fighting this has been unbelievable one day I am going to write a story about this and then my dreams will also come true"

dean" your dreams will come true Sara you know I will help you today is just a day of rest plus its Sunday we need to listen to James get some god in us"

Sara " yes I was just going to say that dean and just rest you worked so hard to get here just one day to do not much of anything the fight was so exciting yet nerve racking it was so close from here its only going to get tougher "

Dean "relax Sara enjoy the ride go take a bath and I will make breakfast then it's about time for church"

Sara" yeah that's exactly what I need"

Dean cooked scrambled eggs and English muffins Sara soaked in a long warm tub , after they ate they listened too the church service
On the radio on Saras computer and relaxed the rest of the day

Sara" James was good today breakfast was good I think I am going to nap dean"

Dean" I am thinking the same Sara just crash for a couple hours"

After they each rested for just about two hours they got up and decided to go for a walk get moving a mini workout to keep their bodies moving

Sara "have you called home told them the good news"

Dean" Sara just leave that alone"

Sara" ok won't ask again "

Dean" sorry I snapped at you you know my family does not back me"

Sara" I know how that can be mine always wants me to stay in my comfort zone and this time I am ready to live while I am still alive you only get one chance at life dean in rare occasions maybe you get 2nd chances but I want to live for Sara and doing this with you is what I need soon I like to move out of Monroe"

dean" yes in bigger town where they have more training for me you can be a care giver anywhere Sara and my main concern is getting you away from gene I do not want you going back to him even if were not a couple I do not want you with him"

Sara" I know we need to save up and figure things out because I know one day you will be out there doing your thing and I need to be away from gene"

Dean" were going to make it no matter what happens you're my friend for life time Sara even if were miles apart I am only a text a call or a email away"

Sara "or a plane ride I may show up from time to time while your on the road unless you make me your manager"

dean" I am definitely thinking about it Sara we got to plan all of it"

Sara" yes we do that was a good walk I am feeling a little energized I think tonight pizza and a movie and maybe our fave show"

Dean and Sara looking at each other "trailer park guys"

Dean "yes and what is today"

Sara" football football and more football"

They go back into the apartment and revive themselves with Gatorade and showers

And settle in for football Sara ordered the pizza got dean his favorite cold beer and they relaxed on the couch dean " you really do know how to take care of me you got my beer in stock, water good food and you watch football with me "

Sara" well the guys are hot and I love your company dean"

they just relaxed ate pizza, watched the games and soon it 11 pm bed time Sara had to be to work by 9 am up by 8.

While we are apart how Sara coped without dean

Sara spent time crying and missing him then she thought back to the day dean was teaching Sara the Christian faith and she sat down and was listening to the pastor dean introduced her too James martin and she turned on and listened to his good message and listened to some encouraging music and stories and it was uplifting to Sara.

she even listened to music that they danced to and had a sensual evening the songs were" wonderful tonight" by Eric Clapton

"Angel" by Aerosmith and "faithfully" by journey and "all summer long" by kid rock she danced and sang through her apartment

Crying occasionally she had one night where she was at her exes telling him she no longer wanted him even if dean did not return

She was done

Sara at genes house

Sara" I am here to tell you that I want you to stop calling me stop texting me that we could never be together again EVER

I am done with you gene and your abuse you're using me and mistreating me even if dean does not return we are DONE

Please leave me alone or I will have you thrown in jail this time"

gene" I love you and one day I will get you back you cant make it without me without me your nothing your fat and you look like you have down syndrome that's why dean left he will not return your not his type your not thin your not beautiful no man will ever love you because I will tell them to stay away from you threaten there lives if need be Sara you know I can get away with murder dean better hope he never comes back
He will go missing"

Sara" I just recorded you try anything gene and your in jail good rid dens never come near me"

She swiftly walked away while gene yelled out loud "you bitch"

She walked away and headed to her apartment and then to her family's house she is still afraid he will do something to hurt her

Dean was going to speak to him before leaving Sara was so scared she told him not to go but now she wished he would have Gone she hated being without dean but knew she had to leave everything in gods hands.

She spent time with her family her aunt and uncle cousins just hanging out going to the movies, to dinner, the casinos,

She faithfully watched football while dean was away and their fave "trailer park guys"

Meanwhile dean also saw his ex Michelle one more time

Dean at Michelle's

Dean "Michelle I do love you with all my heart but we are not meant to be we constantly argue and you are so jealous we both hurt one another

we been with each other so long its all we know I just do not know if I am ready to be married to you or any woman

you do not support my wanting to be in the mma you know its my dream "

Michelle" if you get hurt who will take care of me I need a man who can take care of me not stuck in some damn wheelchair me pushing you around I like sex and lots of it I am with you because your hot sexy and damn good in bed"

Getting angry "Michelle is that all you think of me you hate I am I Christian you hate that I am trying to go after my dream all you want is sex"

Michelle "I am 44 not getting any younger I hoped I could make you settle down if you don't want me get the heck out of here"

Dean" I want to go back to Michigan and follow my dream I never wanted to hurt you or anyone we are just not meant to be"

he left very upset and pissed off all he could do is run it helped clear his head he was missing Sara he may loved her but being a macho type guy he would never ever admit his true feelings for Sara she loved him and would make mountains move for him all he wanted was a friendship

And she accepts that Sara was still nowhere of deans plans to return there was still two more days to go

TWO DAYS LATER she was at home she opened the door saw dean tears flowed down her cheeks she jumped on in his arms " your here your here" "YES I am here why are you crying"

Sara" because your here you came back"

Dean" yes Sara your squeezing me breathless"

Sara "sorry sorry" she let go and let him walk in but how long would it be for?

The Ending

"Over the next 3 months Dean trained in Florida Sara was by his side through most days she was on the phones

online looking for managers and sponsors for deans fighting career pounding the pavement daily while Dean continuously trained and had fights that drew crowds and paid money he was working his way up the rankings from being in the number 20 spot to now after 3 long months being the number 3 contender for the Cage fighting Heavy Weight Championship he would soon get "tap out " to be his sponsor with a $ 15,000 dollar contract and When he became champ The contract was a very lucrative $ 75,000 .

Sara and Dean were eating dinner one night in the suite having a conversation

Dean" Sara I know you been with me through a lot and without you I would not be this far but lately I have been talking with Michelle and she really Loves me and she said things that she never said before and I want to give her another chance"

Sara" your dumping me after I was the one who got you here your dumping me now that your beginning to get money and your going back to her I been by your side got you "tap out" as a sponsor do all your management work and your dumping me ?

She was fueled with hurt and anger and pain her eyes welled up with tears she began to cry " how could you break my heart omg I love you dean I loved you before you were famous and I bet she is only being this way because of the money dean how can you hurt me so?"

Dean "Sara I never ever meant too hurt you I been with her on and off four years it's her I love its Michelle I always loved please understand"

Sara" I am in so much pain I love you" she cried and cried he tried to comfort her but she packed up and she left

winning he got his $ 75,000 dollar contract and endorsement deals

He seemed happy with Michelle but wandered about Sara.

Over the next month and half held onto his belt he had a very tough match coming up against a much bigger and stronger opponent

6' ft 8" 325 lbs. His name was Brian Lashley he was just a huge dominant force with a winning streak that was 32-0

It was a Sunday night Sara was in the audience disguised so dean would not see her there Michelle was up in front

The fight started and dean was giving his all to Brian Lashley Brian gave him a power bomb submission and Dean landed terribly wrong on his neck Sara was panicked she knew something was terribly wrong.

The next day she showed up in the hospital room.

She took his hand" dean it's me Sara can you hear me"

Very faintly " Sara your here she left me Sara she left me"

Sara" I am here I was here last night but I wasn't sure you wanted me but I am a true friend and true friends never leave"

Dean" you were right"

Sara "I am here now and I am not leaving you just take it easy"

Dean" why did I doubt you Sara you told me she was after my money now I am penniless and got this neck injury the doctors say

6 mos before I can come back I can't afford hospital care I had a good surgeon thankfully I am not paralyzed but damn it I am broke"

He broke down into tears

Sara " dean I am here I got your back I always have and I always will I think you will thank me"

She showed him some paper work with insurance stuff and money from deals he made when she was his manager

"dean you got $ 22,000 from an original contract I hid from you incase this happened and I am sorry I was right about her but glad I saved you"

"You done that for me Sara "I love you" " I mean it this time no more Michelle I want you by my side now and always"

"About 5 months later he was on his way to a come back stronger then ever they had moved from Monroe, MI to a two bedroom home in ft,myers, Florida and Dean made his way back to the cage fighting Sara as his manager / wife. His career took off from there and he would soon be the champ just 6 more months later.

Sara" we got our happy ending"

Dean with his arm around her smiling looking out into there beautifully landscaped front yard and then looking at her "yes we did I LOVE YOU"

They shared a warm kiss and then she raised his hand in the air "go champ"

The end
